

Irrigation Traineeship

ABC Pumps and Irrigation is seeking applications for persons interested in commencing a 2year Certificate III in Irrigation Traineeship

This Qualification allows individuals to develop skills and knowledge to become installation or operations technicians within the irrigation industry. This Qualification applies to skilled workers who carry out installation and operations job roles in the irrigation and pumping industry

Looking for a great opportunity to work outdoors in a hands-on capacity, solve problems daily, interact with customers, and join a fast paced productive team in a successful local business?

ABC Pumps & Irrigation are an established locally owned company with a history of quality service in the supply, installation and service of Irrigation and Pumping Equipment on the Central Coast.

This position will be primarily but not limited to the supervised installation and servicing of irrigation and pumping systems.

Experience with Customer Service and Retail Environment would be an advantage, also necessary are basic office skills and the ability to communicate. The ability to work in a team, great work ethic and attention to detail essential.

Ideally candidates will have displayed a mechanical aptitude and a desire to learn.

The ability to problem solve, identify and rectify faults, liaise with customers would also be desirable.

The role includes- a 40hour week with monthly RDO, Training would be provided in block and online form in work hours.

Expressions of interest can be made via email with a resume outlining industry experience to: sales@abcpumps.com. Attn The Manager