

Start a fire sprinkler fitter apprenticeship

and one day you can:

- be a registered fire sprinkler fitter
- be a contractor/employer
- be a business owner

Finish a Certificate III in Fire Sprinkler Fitting

A four-year, full-time apprenticeship

Result — you are a registered fire sprinkler fitter

Finish a Certificate IV in Plumbing and Services

You can do that part-time while you earn money

Result — you can be a fire services supervisor
(subject to NSW Fair Trading licensing requirements)

Finish a Diploma of Fire Systems Design

You can do that part-time while you earn money

Result — you are a fire systems design consultant

Turn up the heat on your career now

Apprenticeship Engagement
forum

Yes, I want to be a fire sprinkler fitter

Great! Check out the subjects the fire protection industry recommends to get you started.

Years 9 and 10

Mandatory subjects:

- English
- Geography or History
- Mathematics (Mathematics in Trades pathway)
- Personal Development, Health and Physical Education (PDHPE)
- Science

Plus two (2) electives:

Now that you have decided on a fire sprinkler fitter apprenticeship you should consider the following subjects as one or more of your electives if they are taught in your school.

- Design and Technology
- Industrial Design
- Information and Software Technology
- Work Education
- Visual Design

Years 11 and 12

Mandatory subjects:

- English or English Studies

Plus electives:

Choosing one or more of these subjects will turn up the heat on your career in the fire protection industry.

- Business Studies
- Design and Technology
- Information Processes and Technology
- Industrial Technology
- Mathematics Standard (Mathematics in Trades pathway)
- Metal and Engineering

