

Diverse Learning Teacher

Permanent Full-time Significant teaching opportunity

Mark Bonnici, Principal of St Edward's College, invites suitably qualified and experienced teachers to indicate their interest and willingness to fulfil this position. The Diverse Learning Teacher promotes the College and EREA ethos by working to support the learning of students with diverse learning needs. This role includes assisting with the implementation of measures to identify students that may require additional support or extension to achieve learning growth. This teacher would also facilitate the development of strategies to support the learning of these students, including assisting teachers in developing strategies associated with differentiation and adjustment. The Diverse Learning Teacher is required to work collaboratively with the Leader of Diverse Learning and subject teachers to develop appropriate and effective strategies and resources to support student learning. The Diverse Learning Support Teacher will demonstrate initiative and a commitment to innovative and engaging pedagogical practice and ensure that all strategies are aligned to the St Edward's Learning Aspiration Statement.
