JMC Canvas Art Award submissions are open

Workshop on Thursday 18th November at 4pm

Are you a high school designer who is comfortable with drawing, painting or using digital mediums to visualise and convey your concept? The Canvas Award is back and dedicated to showcasing the talent of aspiring young designers and their versatility in different mediums, either traditional, digital or both! We invite high school students to submit their design for the Canvas Art Award to win a Wacom One Display Pen Tablet for themselves and a workshop for their class! To help get their ideas going join us for the "Canvas Creative Ideation" workshop with Designer and JMC lecturer Rizwan Nawaz. Riz will take students on a journey to discover how they can analyse a brief and find ways to guide the flow of ideas - as creative ideation is the best way to tackle any problem!

Sign up for NaNoWriMo's Young Writers Program.

Participants aged 17-and-under (18 is okay if still in high school) can sign up for accounts at ywp.nanowrimo.org. If you're participating with a teacher or group leader, you can join their online classroom to stay connected.

To work on a novel, you can join an official event (like NaNoWriMo in November, or Camp NaNoWriMo in April and July), set a word-count goal, and try to reach it by the end of the month. The Young Writers Program allows participants to set individualized goals. 1,000 words? 10,000? 100,000?? It's up to you! Use the progress-tracking tools on our site to stay on track. If no official event is happening, you can create a personal challenge with your own deadline for a new or existing project.

Young writers can write directly in their YWP writing space (or in a separate document), find inspiration in our noveling resources, and tap a worldwide community of fellow writers for support in our forums.

National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) is a fun, empowering approach to creative writing. The challenge: draft an entire novel in just one month. Why do it? For 30 wild, exciting, surprising days, you get to lock away your inner editor, let your imagination take over, and just create!

7 Excellent Career Ideas For Language Learners

Here is an excellent message for all of you who love learning a language.

Are you learning a language to further your career?

'Do you have a career in foreign languages?

Of all the people I've surveyed and listened to over the years, career is one of the most popular motivators for foreign language learning.

The reality is that for most people they don't actually have a 'passion' or deep interest in learning languages like some of us do.' Read more here:

About

Located at the home of the Carlton Football Club, The Carlton College of Sport offers students the unique opportunity to combine their first year of tertiary study with unique, real-world work experience in an elite sporting club.

The Carlton College of Sport currently offers two courses: the Diploma of Sport Coaching and Development and the Diploma of Elite Sport Business — both are accelerator pathways into further tertiary study. The course content is delivered by La Trobe University staff at a teaching space at the Carlton Football Club, giving students access to state-of-the-art training facilities and networking opportunities. Watch our careers expo presentation to get a deeper look at what Carlton College has to offer.

After completing their studies, students have the option to enter the second year of a bachelor's degree at La Trobe University, or head out into the workforce.

With no ATAR requirement to enter either diploma, Year 12 students can apply now to receive a conditional offer and secure their spot for 2022 before receiving their results in December.

Students can apply directly through La Trobe University. Find out how to apply here.

5 STEM Quizzes that help you narrow down your Uni preference choices

If you're almost finished high school, picking a tertiary pathway can feel like a blur of Uni Open Days, looming UAC deadlines and late night Google searches. Because let's be real –narrowing down thousands of undergraduate options to find a compatible course and campus, is probably one of the biggest decisions you've had to make so far. In order to give your brain the chill space it needs to do other important things – like er, study for the HSC – we've dug up five quizzes designed to help you find a degree that fits. Match a pathway with your extra-curricular interests and discover which of our e-mags is the right resource for you!

And if you don't get the ATAR needed to get into your first few preferences? There are loads of awesome alternative pathways that don't involve heading to Uni.

Support to Australian Apprentices with Disability

The Australian Government provides additional support to Australian Apprentices with disability through assistance for tutorial, interpreter and mentor services for apprentices.

Tutorial, interpreter and mentor services are available for eligible apprentices who need extra assistance with their off-the-job training. Apprentices must be experiencing difficulty with off-the-job training because of that disability.

Registered Training Organisations who provide these services are able to attract financial aid.

This payment is NOT made to Australian Apprentices. For more information about support to Australian Apprentices with disability, contact your local Apprenticeship Network provider.

Help is also available through the Employment Assistance Fund \(EAF\).

The EAF gives financial aid to eligible people so they can buy work related modifications, equipment, help and services.
