

14 June 2022

Dear Colleagues

I am pleased to announce that Ms Jodie Connor has been appointed to the position of Deputy Principal at St Edward's College, East Gosford, commencing at the beginning of Term 3 2022.

Jodie has served with distinction as a leader and educator at St Edward's College for over 20 years. She is currently the Acting Deputy Principal (since January 2022) and prior to this has held roles as Director of Professional Learning, Director of Administration, Year Coordinator and Drama Coordinator. Jodie also worked as a Lecturer and Tutor in the Drama Department at the University of Newcastle from 2005 to 2012.

Jodie complements her leadership experience with impressive qualifications including: a Master of Education, a Bachelor of Arts, a Graduate Diploma in Education, a Certificate of Religious Education, a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment and Certificates in Live Production Theatre and Events and Screen and Media. She comes highly recommended for this key senior role.

On behalf of all members of the Edmund Rice Education Australia community, I congratulate Jodie on this significant appointment and wish her well as she continues her leadership at St Edward's College.

Yours sincerely

Dr Craig Wattam
Executive Director
Edmund Rice Education Australia