

The Barney Allam Legacy Scholarship

Supporting Country NSW Education

In memory of founder, Barney Allam OAM, and in partnership with the Panthers and SEDA Group, Allam Property Group is pleased to offer a scholarship to support one regional student to undertake the Panthers Sport & Business Program in 2026.

Potential students can apply for the scholarship before or after applying for the program. There is no obligation or cost associated with applications for this scholarship.

Each scholarship will include:

- › Full tuition fee waiver to the value of $21,500
- › $10,000 toward student living costs
- › Connection to structured work-integrated learning experiences and projects at the Panthers or partner organisations that align with individual areas of interest
- › Mentoring opportunities through the Panthers
- › Additional support for transition to higher education and/or employment

Scholarship does not include $395 non-tuition fee, learning materials (e.g. laptop), or international study tour.

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- › Currently reside in regional NSW (west of the Blue Mountains)
- › Reside in NSW while enrolled in the program
- › An Australian citizen and/or permanent resident
- › Scholarship recipients must commit to the following:
 - › Positively represent Allam Property Group, the Panthers, SEDA and program partners
 - › Complete all aspects of the Panthers Sport & Business Program, while making the most of the opportunities presented through the scholarship. This may include promotional activities that will be adjusted to the applicants skill and comfort.

Students can apply for the scholarship by submitting a one-page application covering their:

- › Ability to meet the aforementioned criteria
- › Reason(s) for applying for the scholarship and what they would like to achieve in 2026
- › Academic background and achievements
- › Involvement with the community where they live

Students interested in a scholarship must ensure they complete the following application process:

- › Submit an application letter (see above), along with one academic and one personal referee, to scholarships@sedagroup.com.au

Applications close 5pm Monday, 27th October, 2025.

Next steps:

- › Eligible applicants will be notified to arrange a formal interview
- › Interviews will be conducted by a panel consisting of Allam Property Group, SEDA and Panthers representatives
- › Applicants will be advised of when they can expect to have an outcome confirmed at the conclusion of their interview

For more information

Email scholarships@sedagroup.com.au

Panthers work in collaboration with SEDA Group RTO: 22503 on marketing and promotional services relating to the recruitment of prospective students for this program. Information accurate as July 2025.